

Universalist Convocation 2016

“Universalism at the Confluence”

First Unitarian Universalist Society of Marietta
232 Third Street, Marietta, Ohio
May 20-22, 2016

Speakers and Workshop Leaders:

Dr. David Torbett, Professor of History and Religion at Marietta College, presenting Frontier Universalist Daniel Parker, based on his book, The Autobiography of Daniel Parker, a Frontier Universalist.

Rev. Justin Lapoint, former FUUSM minister, Minister Emeritus of Outlaw's Bridge Universalist Church, and Professor of Religion at James Sprunt Community College, will share Universalism's Role Within Unitarian Universalism Today. The confluence refers not only to the Ohio and Muskingum Rivers that meet at Marietta but the present day UUA.

Rev. Richard Trudeau, Minister Emeritus of the UU Church of Weymouth, MA, author of Universalism 101: An Introduction for Leaders of UU Congregations and Bible Stories for Skeptics, will present Overview of UU History that is clear and easy for people to remember, focusing on ideas rather than names or dates. Do you struggle to share our faith? Rev. Trudeau makes it easy.

There will be additional workshops, a trolley tour of historic Marietta, Ohio, and Saturday night entertainment. Expect an informative, exciting weekend, making new friends, and connecting with old ones!!!

See YOU on May 20, 2016 in Marietta, Ohio!
